

Subrat Kumar Singhdeo: . A post-graduate in Sociology from Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, India with certificate courses from Harvard University, USA and Institute of Social Studies, Netherlands. He had worked as CEO of Rashtriya Gramin Vikas Nidhi (an Indian grant making agency) prior to setting up the Madhyam Foundation, a livelihood focused organization working in eastern part of India. He has executed more than 60 consulting assignments for national and international agencies such as the Ford Foundation, NOVIB, CARE, MISEREOR, Lutheran World Relief, CRS, OXFAM, Action Aid, TDH-Geneva, Freedom from Hunger, Sa-Dhan , Partner in Change and Sir Dorabjee Tata Trust. His core competencies are in the areas of livelihood promotion and organizational development through study, action research, appraisal and evaluation, facilitation, program management, mentoring, networking and capacity building. His works are focused on non-traditional security issues in some of the under developed regions in India. He has twenty four years of experience in development sector across different parts of India. As a known professional, he has visited number of countries such as USA, Peru, Bolivia, Ecuador, Netherlands, France, Belgium, Thailand, Bangladesh and Nepal. He recently co-edited a book 'Human security: from concept to practice; case studies from North east and Orissa in India', published by World Scientific, Singapore